Plan A – Pre-Sell

Take orders first, then buy exactly what you sold.

1. Hand out the kit. Give each seller a Sales Tracking Sheet, the Salsa Menu, and the Facts & Safety Tips.
2. Tell us you're starting. We'll list your group online for out-of-town family and send a flyer sellers can email.
3. Sell. Sellers collect $10/jar at time of order, checks payable to your organization.
4. Compile. Collect all tracking sheets; the Excel workbook totals them for you.
5. Submit your final order at fundraising.josemadridsalsa.com/submit once it's 100% final, then pay $5/jar.
6. Deliver. We fill your order as submitted; it arrives in about a week. Sort by seller and hand out.

FASTEST · SELL FROM INVENTORY

Plan B – Buy, Then Sell

Order salsa up front and sell jars on the spot.

1. Choose quantities on the Order Form. Order in cases of 12.
2. Submit & pay. Enter your final order at fundraising.josemadridsalsa.com/submit, then pay $5/jar using any option below.
3. Sell at $10/jar at games, bazaars, concessions, church and office events — keep the menu on the table so buyers can pick by heat.

Tip: Not sure what to order? Lean on the best sellers — Raspberry Mild and Black Bean Corn Poblano — then round out the mix with mild, medium, and hot choices.

Set a goal

If your group sells…	Cases	Collected	Send to José Madrid	Your profit

Salsa Facts & Safety Tips

Hand crafted in Zanesville, Ohio since 1989

Our Story

José Madrid was born in Clovis, in the Territory of New Mexico, before it became a state. He lived in Lincoln County — home of Billy the Kid and Sheriff Pat Garrett — and could shoot cans off a fence post with his Colt .45 at full gallop.

After losing his wife, José taught his six daughters to cook. He grew his own vegetables and peppers and turned them into salsa, an art he passed down to his children.

His daughter Estelle married Al Zakany, who was training in Clovis with the Army Air Corps in WWII, and moved to his hometown of Zanesville, Ohio. Their sons opened a restaurant built on José's "New Mexican" recipes.

1989 Son Mike saw the potential in the restaurant's salsa and perfected his grandfather's recipe. Mike "The Salsa King" Zakany's salsas have since won blue ribbons in national competitions in the US and Canada.

José Madrid makes 25 flavors. This fundraiser features 9 favorites.
