Salsa Facts & Safety Tips

Hand crafted in Zanesville, OH · National award-winning, all-natural salsa

The story of José Madrid

José Madrid was born in Clovis, in the Territory of New Mexico, before it became a state. He lived in Lincoln County, home of Billy the Kid and Sheriff Pat Garrett, and they say he could shoot cans off a fence post with his Colt .45 at full gallop.

After losing his wife, José raised six daughters and a son and taught his daughters to cook. He grew his own vegetables and peppers and turned them into salsa, an art he passed down to his children.

His daughter Estelle married Al Zakany, who was training in Clovis with the Army Air Corps during WWII, and moved with him to Zanesville, Ohio. Their sons opened a restaurant built on José's "New Mexican" recipes.

In 1989, their son Mike saw potential in the restaurant's salsa. He perfected his grandfather's recipe, and "The Salsa King" went on to win blue ribbons in national competitions in the US and Canada.

We believe José Madrid is the best-tasting salsa you'll ever try, and we have the awards to back it up.
